All that we do, let us try to do it well.

ITS ALL ABOUT

RELATIONSHIPS

There has been much excitement on campus this week as UD's student body returns and campus now bursts with energy. Campus Ministry welcomes those who are new to UD and to those returning "home" to familiar ground.

I have been conscious this week of the web of relationships in the UD community. Parents sharing poignant farewells with children, new students meeting roommates for the first time, housemates and friends catching up on the events of full and exciting summers, faculty and staff reuniting with one another and with the students they mentor and teach. Relationships – they form us, challenge us, entertain us, comfort us, and give us hope.

Today's psalmist proclaims "My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God" (Psalm 63). We are reminded of how we yearn for the most important relationship in our lives - our relationship with God. Without it, we are always thirsty for something more.

Consider time spent cultivating or rekindling relationships – and, if you have not already, don't forget to put God on that list. Spend some time alone with God, catch-up on those things that mean the most, express joy and sorrow, and allow some time for listening – the same way you would with a friend.

UD Campus Ministry offers opportunities for you to be in relationship with God and one another. We hope you will take advantage of ways to practice and deepen your faith – through worship, service, retreats, and more. Pray for one another as your journey towards knowing God unfolds.

-Crystal Sullivan, Director of Campus Ministry-

Missal, Mass and Mission

Changes are coming for the Roman Catholic Mass in late November. This weekly column will appear in the Faithful Flyer to help in understanding what is happening with the Mass.

Some of the words surrounding these changes may be unfamiliar. The word MISSAL points to the red prayerbook that the priest uses at every Mass to lead and engage the Congregation. The words MISSAL, MASS, and MISSION are all connected.

Each week we will cover some part of the Mass that is changing. Small red booklets will be available to help you learn the responses and the corresponding music. We will begin introducing a new Gloria, Memorial Acclamation, and Holy, Holy on Sunday September 11. Stay tuned.

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our
